SITE Intelligence Group presents a video report, "Raising Terror: How the Islamic State Indoctrinates its Youth."

The video report explores and analyzes how the Islamic State (IS) embeds its ideology into children, with the ultimate goal to use them as both soldiers and vessels for its message.

The report also contains commentary and analysis by SITE Director Rita Katz.

SITE warns that the video is highly disturbing and graphic, containing footage of killings carried out by children.

"There is certainly no pleasure in seeing brain-washed children commit acts of violence," says Katz. "But there is also no justice in softening or turning a blind eye to this ugly reality. We hope that showing these horrors will bring attention to an urgent issue that many don't know the full extent of."
